

CONTENTS

ACRONYMS	13
RECURRING INFORMANTS	14
PROLOGUE Mwana Mboka	21
CHAPTER 1. Mboka Ebebi The Country is Failed	23
Uncertainties and Conjugations	23
Three Cities	32
State Weakness, DRC and Criticism	44
A State Ecosystem: An Analytical Framework	57
Key Caveats	63
Structure	65
CHAPTER 2. Kin la belle, Kin la Poubelle Setting the Scenes	69
Weaknesses of Urban Planning: a Colonial Heritage	69
The Formal Dimensions of Colonial Administration	76
The First Republic, Mobutu's Zaire and the 'Congo Wars'	83
Administering Congolese Cities	89
CHAPTER 3. Mokili Ebende A World of Steel	93
Conventional Paradigms of (under) Development in Africa	93
Intermediary Critiques: Politicization and Hybridity	120
Towards Inter-Disciplinarity: Embeddedness, Ambiguities, Historicity	126
CHAPTER 4. Ça Fait Partie de Notre Ecosystème (Re)Imagining the State	141
Beyond Failure: An Empirical Outlook	141
A State Ecosystem	149
Main Analytical Components	155
Methods and Scope	168
Moving Forward	185

CHAPTER 5. Ntango Ya Flamands Colonial Durabilities and State Anxieties	187
State Governance: Colonial Past and Presences	187
Private Encounters	194
Securitizing White (and Thin) Skin	217
Contemporary States of Colonial Nostalgia	233
CHAPTER 6. Les Anarchistes Officialism and Distantiation	253
Officialism, Ambivalences and Distantiation	253
Altering Urban Geographies	264
Capturing ‘Public’ Mobility	282
Doing and Visualizing Surveillance	299
Distantiation and the Reproduction of (Violent) State Power	310
CHAPTER 7. C’est Notre Mama Mediating and Humanizing	317
Conciliate, Arbitrate, Resolve	317
Mediating ‘State-in-Society’ Relations	320
Mediating ‘through’ the State	347
Affect and Experiential Encounters: An Intimate Image of the State	360
CHAPTER 8. L’Etat ni miye, l’Etat ni weye, l’Etat ni shiye bote Concluding Remarks	367
A State Ecosystem in Sum	367
Future Research	373
The State is All of Us	374
WORKS CITED	381
ANNEXES	403